

Our history

Kenya Permanent Mission, Geneva

The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Kenya to the United Nations and other International Organizations in Geneva, Switzerland was opened in 1985 under its first Permanent Representative, the Late Amb. Dennis Afande.

The Mission covers primarily, the United Nations Office at Geneva (UNOG), which is the second largest UN office in the world, making Geneva the world's leading centre of multilateral diplomacy. UN Office is central to the functioning of the International Geneva, with its concentration of more than 40 international organizations, 181 Permanent Missions and over 400 non-governmental organizations.

UNOG brings together individuals, organizations and nations to pursue a better future for all. As a diplomatic centre, with near universal representation of states, Geneva is the ideal location for successful international cooperation. Over 12,000 meetings are held at the Palais des Nations every year, each differently addressing challenges facing humanity around the globe.