

Our history

Kenya Embassy, Madrid

The Embassy of the Republic of Kenya in Madrid was established in 2007 and Amb. Mwakai Sio was appointed the first Ambassador to Spain in the same year.

The Mission was initially accredited to the Kingdom of Spain and the UN Tourism, but later expanded its accreditation to include the Principality of Andorra.

Prior to the opening of this Embassy, the Kenya Embassy in Paris was accredited to the Kingdom of Spain. The Embassy articulates Kenya's foreign policy and pursues Kenya's interests in the countries of accreditation and the UN Tourism. The functions of the Embassy include Political, Economic and Trade, Tourism, Multilateral and Consular Affairs.

Accreditation to the Principality of Andorra

Kenya and the Principality of Andorra signed a communique establishing diplomatic relations in 16th February 2022. The Kenya Embassy in Madrid was subsequently accredited to the Principality of Andorra. This was a first step in growing bilateral relations and multilateral cooperation between the two countries.

Accreditation to UN Tourism

Kenya has been an active member of UN Tourism since its inception in 1975. The Kenya Embassy in Madrid is accredited to the UN Tourism and acts as a key facilitator and representative of the Government of Kenya in the organization. While the Ambassador is the Permanent Representative of the UN Tourism, the focal point is the Ministry of Tourism and Wildlife of the Republic of Kenya. Kenya is currently a member of the Committee of Tourism and Competitiveness, Program and Budget Committee, and Tourism and Sustainability Committee.
